

Centre for Tax Governance part of the Accountability and Governance Research Cluster

TITLE OF THE EVENT: Taxation as a Social and Political Institution

DATE: Thursday 10th March 2016

Programme

Time	Presenter	Institution	Title
10:00 - 10:10	Penelope Tuck- Simon Collinson	University of Birmingham	Opening remarks
10:10 - 11:10	Prof. Anthony Infanti	University of Pittsburgh, USA	Tax Law and Politics: Seeing Self and Other in the Tax Mirror
11:10 - 11:30	Coffee Break
11:30 –12:10	Prof. Mick Moore	University of Sussex	The evolution of tax governance in Anglophone Africa
12:10 - 12:40	Dr Dominic de Cogan and Prof. Penelope Tuck	University of Cambridge University of Birmingham	Non domestic rates as a test- bed for devolution
12:40 - 13:10	Dr Liam Stanley	University of Sheffield	The paradox of the contemporary tax state: An experimental study into annual tax summaries
13:10 - 14:00	Lunch
14:00 - 14:40	Dr Lisa Marriott	Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand	Poverty and Privilege: The contribution of the New Zealand tax system to inequality
14:40 - 15:10	Dr Rodrigo Ormeño- Pérez and Prof. Lynne Oats	University of Birmingham University of Exeter	The (in)visible hand of politics in tax administration practices
15:10 - 15:30	Coffee/ tea Break
15:30 - 16:10	Prof. Rebecca Boden	Roehampton University	Taxing Education: Elite schooling and circuits of social and cultural capital production
16:10 - 16:20	Prof. Penelope Tuck	University of Birmingham	Closing remarks